REPORT—

The Department of English, Handique Girl's College, organized an Inter-disciplinary Talk on 25 February 2026 at 10:00 a.m. in Room 2. The topic of the lecture was "Classical Sanskrit Literary Traditions and its Influence on the West."

The session was delivered by Ms. Rashmi Rekha Devi, Assistant Professor, Department of Sanskrit. The programme was attended by the students of English Department.

The programme commenced with a brief welcome address by Dr. Nitusmita Bhattacharyya, who highlighted the relevance of interdisciplinary engagement in contemporary academia. The speaker was then formally introduced to the audience.

In her lecture, Ms. Devi offered a comprehensive overview of Classical Sanskrit literary traditions, discussing major genres, aesthetic principles, and foundational texts. The lecture illuminated the rich cross-cultural exchanges that have shaped literary traditions across time and space.

The session was followed by an interactive question-and-answer segment, during which students actively engaged with the speaker. The discussion reflected keen interest in comparative literary studies and the continued relevance of classical traditions in modern scholarship.

The Inter-disciplinary Talk proved to be intellectually stimulating and academically enriching. It successfully fostered dialogue between disciplines and reinforced the importance of classical studies in understanding global literary traditions.
