International Mother Language Day (21 February 2026)

The Department of English celebrated the International Mother Language Day on 21st February 2026. A total of 32 students of the 4th and 6th semesters attended the session. The event highlighted the importance of mother tongues and linguistic heritage through cultural performances and short talks. Akangsha Mudai, the Class Representative (CR) of the 6th semester, delivered the welcome address emphasising the need to celebrate such a day to promote linguistic diversity, preserve endangered languages, and encourage respect for all cultures. Adhisa Roy presented two Bengali songs and 1 Assamese song celebrating the richness of these languages. Riya Hussain sang a popular song by Zubeen Garg, the cultural icon of Assam. Putusenla Longchar recited a poem in Ao language on how a child learns their mother tongue from the mother's lap. Anyta Lumkin recited a poem in the Kuki language. Indrani Kumari spoke about the Nepali language and its significance. Shreya Sinha highlighted the importance of Hindi and read a Bishnupriya Manipuri folk tale by Lakshmindra Sinha. Students from the 4th semester also recited a few Assamese poems. In her vote of thanks, Shreya Sinha remarked that the programme allowed her to appreciate all the different languages which are the mother tongues of her fellow students. She emphasized that the celebration reflected the diversity of the Indian nation.

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY (21 FEBRUARY, 2026)

The Department of English, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), celebrated International Mother Language Day on 21 February 2026 at 10:00 AM. Students of the 4th and 6th semesters actively participated in the programme.

The event highlighted the importance of mother tongues and linguistic heritage through cultural performances and short talks. The programme was organised and conducted by the students. Akangsha Mudai, Class Representative (CR) of the 6th semester, delivered the welcome address emphasising the need to celebrate such a day to promote linguistic diversity, preserve endangered languages, and encourage respect for all cultures.

Adhisa Roy presented two Bengali songs and one Assamese song, celebrating the richness of these languages. Riya Hussain sang a popular song by Zubeen Garg. Putusenla Longchar recited a poem in the Ao language, describing how a child learns their mother tongue from a mother's lap. Anyta Lumkin recited a poem in the Kuki language. Indrani Kumari spoke about the Nepali language and its significance. Shreya Sinha highlighted the importance of Hindi and read a Bishnupriya Manipuri folk tale by Lakshmindra Sinha. Students from the 4th semester also recited a few Assamese poems.

In her vote of thanks, Shreya Sinha remarked that the programme provided an opportunity to appreciate not only one's own mother tongue but also the diversity of other languages. She emphasized that the celebration reflected unity in diversity, the true spirit of the Indian nation.
