

Department of political science

Programme Specific outcome: (BA in Political science) Political Science programme outcome is:

- 1) Engagement in Politics. (Goal of the programme is to prepare students for active citizenship and demonstrate an ongoing interest in national and global politics.)
- 2) Critical thinking about political concepts and systems.
- 3) Substantive knowledge of institutions, processes and values

Course Outcome: Students of Political Science major/general will be able to understand the foundation of Indian Political System; be able to explain political theory, political systems around the world and politics in the international arena; able to know how laws are made, how do the political systems get effected by the society, International as well as domestic mechanism for the protection of human rights, what are recent challenges to contemporary politics and also about and also about the politics in North East India.